

Holland's most beautiful cities

A cycling tour through the Netherlands.

This cycle tour takes you to Holland's most beautiful cities: Amsterdam, The Hague, Rotterdam, Gouda and Utrecht are all worth a visit in themselves. Many of their numerous enchanting monuments, buildings and squares have been part of UNESCO World Heritage for some time. In between, you will discover water-rich and green scenery, with the windmills, canals and drawbridges so typical of Holland. Picturesque villages create a special atmosphere. On the North Sea coast, extensive dunes and sandy beaches invite you to sunbathe, or you can simply stroll along the promenades. Art and culture lovers will find exciting museums and shopping fans will get their money's worth in trendy Rotterdam. Don't forget to try the famous delicacies: Gouda cheese and syrup waffles are just two of them.

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Amsterdam

Today you can explore the extensive canal system, visit the museum district or stroll through winding streets with the narrow houses whose gabled facades are so typical of the cityscape. Wherever you go in Amsterdam, the bicycle is the best mode of transport. A glass of beer in a good restaurant is the perfect way to end the day.

2

Amsterdam – Zandvoort | approx. 40 km

Take another stroll through the Dutch metropolis before you start your cycling tour. You will quickly reach Haarlem, which is ideal for a lunch break. In this idyllic town, you will find some of Holland's characteristic windmills, canals and drawbridges. The last stretch will take you to the coast and Zandvoort, where the extensive sandy beaches will tempt you to take a swim.

3

Zandvoort – The Hague | approx. 50 km

Today's stage takes you along the North Sea coast. Wonderful beach promenades will once again tempt you to take a dip in the cool water. In spring, a short detour to Keukenhof is worthwhile, where more than 7 million tulips, hyacinths and daffodils can be admired. Today's destination is The Hague. Wide sandy beaches, green parks and beautiful dunes characterise this city. Those interested in art and culture will also get their money's worth thanks to the wide range of museums.

4

The Hague – Rotterdam | approx. 50 km

You will now head inland again, away from the coast. On your way, you will quickly reach Delft. The university town is famous far beyond its borders for Delft porcelain. In the Vermeer Centre, you can admire works by the painter Johannes Vermeer. The numerous cafés and restaurants will tempt you to linger. The cycling stage ends in the trendy harbour metropolis of Rotterdam, a paradise for shopping fans.

DAY
5Rotterdam – Gouda | approx. 55 km

After breakfast, you will still have time for a short stroll through Rotterdam. You will be captivated by the modern architecture. Once on your bike, you will quickly reach the windmills of Kinderdijk. The 19 impressive buildings are among the most popular postcard motifs in the Netherlands. The famous windmills were built as early as 1740 and were declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1997. The rest of the tour takes you through the water-rich and picturesque countryside to Gouda.

DAY
6Gouda – Utrecht | approx. 50 km

The medieval town Gouda is not only famous for its cheese, but also for its syrup waffles. You can convince yourself of their quality at breakfast! Today's stage takes you into the green heart of the Netherlands. You will pass through extensive natural landscapes, picturesque villages and vast polders. In the historic city centre of Utrecht, you can end the cycling stage with a refreshing beer. Numerous restaurants and bars invite you to stay a while.

DAY
7Utrecht – Amsterdam | approx. 55 km

Picturesque parks, canals, historic buildings and many interesting museums await you in Utrecht. Following the course of the Utrechtse Vecht, your cycle tour continues. The region surrounding this idyllic river offers a lot of culture and history. The beautiful landscape is complemented by a rich gastronomic culture. At the end of the day, you will once again reach the starting point of your cycle tour, the Dutch capital Amsterdam. You will certainly not be bored in the evening!

DAY
8Departure or extension

There is still time for all the things you didn't manage to do at the beginning of your tour. Whether it's a canal cruise or a relaxing stroll, you can always find some peace and quiet in the capital. We are happy to book an extension stay if you want more time to explore.

Tour character

Holland is perfect for a cycling holiday. The numbered junction network makes navigation easy, and the route is completely flat on dedicated asphalt cycle paths or side roads with little traffic. Only when entering and leaving the cities is increased traffic to be expected. A very easy cycling tour that is also well suited for families with children.
