

Funen round trip from Odense

Round trip on the Danish South Sea

Denmark is the ideal location for a cycling holiday - especially the island Funen. A total of 1,200 km of signposted cycle paths will delight both young and older cyclists. The island in the South Funen Sea is considered a small paradise and is known far and wide as the garden of Denmark. Your tour will bring you right across the island, at times along the coast and at times through the middle of the island. Diverse landscapes and breath-taking coastlines await you. Small, idyllic harbour towns will give way to extensive fields and lush forests. You will also discover the enchanting Ærø island and Odense, the capital of Funen and also the birthplace of Hans Christian Andersen. You should remember to pack your bathing suit too: numerous sandy beaches will entice you again and again to take a refreshing dip. For culture enthusiasts, many museums are just waiting to be discovered. Take a break from day to day life and immerse yourself in this cyclist's paradise.

Itinerary

DAY
1

Individual arrival in Odense

Odense is the capital of Funen and also the birthplace of Hans Christian Andersen. We recommend an early arrival, as this cultural and historic town has a lot to offer. You can discover the long history of the town during an evening stroll, and also check out the local gastronomy scene.

2

Odense - Assens/surroundings | approx. 50-60 km

You will quickly leave the hustle and bustle of the town behind you and immerse yourself in a real nature paradise. After just a few kilometres, you will discover why Funen is known as Denmark's garden. The often untouched landscape will enchant you, and many places along the way are suitable for a picnic. Today's goal is the small harbour town Assens, located directly on the Little Belt. You can find out a lot about the historical old quarter by visiting the local Vestfyn museum.

3

Assens/surroundings - Faaborg | approx. 45-35 km

Today you will pass through the "Alps of Funen island". The landscape will alternate between forested areas and stretches of coast, and offer breath-taking views again and again. The untouched moraine landscape in the "Svaninge Bakker" national park is especially attractive. Fans of architecture will be impressed by the many old manors and churches you will pass on your route. Today's goal is Faaborg. The old harbour town is best discovered on a stroll through the small streets. For culture enthusiasts, it is worth visiting the Faaborg art museum.

4

Faaborg - Insel Ærø - Svendborg | approx. 25 km + 2 ferry rides

A special experience awaits you today. During your tour, you will discover Ærø island. A ferry ride in the morning will bring you from Faaborg to Søby. You can see the best of the island on a short bicycle tour eastward. You should definitely take some time to explore Ærøskøbing, the fascinating and historical capital of the island. From Ærøskøbing you will take the ferry back to Funen island and Svendborg where you will spend the night.

5

Rest day or excursion to Tåsinge island, Langeland island or Skarø and Drejø islands

approx. 20 km/50 km

Today you will be spoilt for choice. Svendborg is the maritime centre of Funen island. Here you will have many options for shopping, tourist attractions, restaurants and bars. Use today for a little rest and relaxation or to stroll around. There are also many options on the bike: Skarø and Drejø islands offer a unique nature experience and are easy to reach from Svendborg by ferry (ticket not included; price approx. € 19 per person; payable on site). Alternatively, you can visit Tåsinge island with the unmissable Valdemar's castle. Don't forget to bring along your bathing suit. Whatever you choose, you definitely won't be bored today.

6

Svendborg - Nyborg

approx. 55 km

Today's route is very varied. A large part of it leads along the coastline, but you will also ride inland now and again. Along the way you will pass by many old castles and manors. There will be plenty of opportunities to take a quick dip as well. The strait between the danish island Funen in the West and Zealand in the East is called the Great Belt. In Nyborg, you will find the impressive Great Belt Fixed Link which is still one of the longest suspension bridges in the world. Nyborg castle is also worth a visit.

7

Nyborg - Odense

approx. 50 km

Following the coast all the way, you will soon reach the picturesque harbour town of Kerteminde. Visit the Fjord & Belt Museum to find out about the sea and its inhabitants. The many restaurants along the harbour are a great choice for a midday pause. The last leg of your journey will bring you back to Odense, the start of your bicycle tour on Funen. Take some time for another evening stroll around town or visit the newly renovated birthplace of Hans Christian Andersen.

DAY
8

Individual departure or extension

Your tour ends after breakfast. We would be happy to help you book a longer stay to explore Odense.

Tour character

In general, an easy tour through flat and slightly hilly landscapes (the highest point of Funen is only 131 m above sea level). Mostly dedicated cycle paths and small secondary roads with little traffic; it is only in the towns that you should expect more traffic. Good to very good signposting. Also suitable for families with children who already have some experience on bicycles.
