Also today you cycle through the Saalach valley. Bad Reichenhall, in the "small German corner", enchants you with Bavarian flair. After a short distance you have reached Salzburg, the city of Mozart. You leave Salzburg and its Alps and cycle through the Alpine foothills. The Tauern bike path ends in Tittmoning and from here you have to follow the nature trail along the Lower Inn before you reach today's destination of Burghausen. In Passau there is a lot to discover. If you are interested in we would be pleased to book some extra nights

Tour character

The Tauern bike path is continuously and detailed signposted. The route leads through quiet and paved paths and country roads. Partly you will have to cycle on more travelled routes. A few short stages you have to manage on unpaved paths. The quality of the trail can be described broadly as very good. An ascending slope is hardly present in this variant and therefore the cycling tour is also suitable for families with children.
