

Munich - Lake Constance

From the Hofbräuhaus in Munich to the „Bavarian Harbour“.

On this trip you will cycle through the beautiful scenery in southern Bavaria, always accompanied by a breathtaking view of the Alps. You can enjoy the unspoiled nature of this region cycling next to flowering meadows, through quiet woods and lush fields, as well as along rivers and many small lakes. You will use well-known bike paths and get a chance to admire famous royal palaces, illustrious churches, historical squares, and interesting museums, as well as many lesser-known attractions of the region. Thus, this tour not only offers you the charm of pure nature, but also the highest Bavarian culture.

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Munich

Welcome briefing and bike fitting. The capital city of Bavaria is awaiting you and invites you to visit its many attractions (English Garden, Town Hall, Hofbräuhaus,...)

2

München – Murnau am Staffelsee | approx. 65 km

Today's tour starts with a ride through the Forstenrieder park until you get to Lake Starnberg. Then the bike path runs directly along the lakeside edge until you get to Seeshaupt. You will cycle along beautiful paths running through quaint, Bavarian villages and past the Osterseen lakes, lake Riegsee and then finally to Murnau am Staffelsee.

3

Murnau – Füssen/Schwangau | approx. 60 km

The third day on the bike will at first take you through the nature reserve Murnauer Moos (the largest marshland in Central Europe) and the "Altenauer Moor". After the impressions of this pristine nature, you will get to know the essence of Bavarian Rococo – the Wieskirche church. However, the highlights of the day are the royal castles of Neuschwanstein and Hohenschwangau.

4

Füssen/Schwangau – Nesselwang | approx. 25 km

From the former site of Bavarian majesty, you will cycle further along Lake Forggensee to Hopfen am See. This area impresses with its seven major and numerous other smaller lakes. You will continue your tour through fields and meadows and get a stunning view of the Allgäu Alps, Mount Zugspitze and the Tannheimer mountains until you reach Nesselwang.

DAY
5Nesselwang – Oberstaufen | approx. 50 km

At the beginning of today's stage, the route is a little bit hilly. However, the beautiful Alpine panorama makes up for the little effort you have to make. You will pass Lake Rottachsee and relax when cycling downhill to Immenstadt (nice town with good restaurants) and continue along Lake Großer Alpensee until you reach today's destination, the spa town of Oberstaufen.

DAY
6Oberstaufen – Lindau | approx. 50 km

On your last day of cycling, you will cycle through typical Allgäu landscape with scattered farms and villages to the beautiful Lake Constance (or in German, Bodensee). After arriving at the lakeside of the pretty town of Lindau, we recommend a visit to the island, the Old Town Hall and the proud patrician houses with their impressive frescoes. Overnight stay in Lindau or in Nonnenhorn, approx. 8 km from Lindau.

DAY
7Departure or extension

Tour character

You will enjoy some slight climbs and descents cycling through the gently rolling alpine foothills, where you can admire a beautiful panoramic view of the Alps and the idyllic lakes on the way. You will cycle on beautiful bike ways and minor roads. Main roads will only be used for short distances. Most roads are paved; some longer passages are on natural roads which are in good condition.
