

Bruges - Amsterdam

A cycling tour through Belgium and the Netherlands.

This cycle tour takes you from Belgium to the Netherlands. Starting in Bruges, the Venice of the North, a varied week awaits you. West Flanders and the Belgian coastline are sure to enchant you. In the province of Zeeland, the beautiful sandy beaches invite you to sunbathe. In Holland, historic fortified towns provide an incomparable atmosphere and the windmills of the Kinderdijk are a must-see when visiting the region. Your tour ends in Amsterdam, the famous metropolis with its canals, museums and many boutiques for shopping fans. In between, lush green landscapes with grazing cows, extensive forests and lots of water await you. You will also see national parks and picturesque villages as well as impressive buildings and monuments, many of which are UNESCO World Heritage Sites. The tour from Bruges to Amsterdam is also a culinary journey, with Flemish delicacies, Belgian beer, cheese and syrupy waffles from Gouda as well as plenty of fresh seafood. Everything your heart desires!

Itinerary

DAY
1

Arrival in Bruges

The Venice of the North will delight you with its historic town centre and canals. Situated in the middle of the beautiful landscape of Flanders, Bruges is the most attractive city in the region. The city centre was declared a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 2000.

2

Brügge – Vlissingen/Middelburg | approx. 65 km

From Bruges, you will start cycling through the beautiful landscape of West Flanders. At Knokke-Heist you will reach the coast and follow it for a while. Again and again, vast sandy beaches will tempt you to take a dip in the cool water. At the end of the day, a ferry will take you to Zeeland. The maritime town of Vlissingen is your overnight stop. Here, you can watch the sun set during an evening stroll along the sea promenade.

3

Vlissingen/Middelburg – Schuddebeurs/Zierikzee | approx. 50 km

You will spend the day in the province of Zeeland, whose rich nature and long history will amaze you. Beautiful beaches with crystal clear water often accompany you along the route. Culinary delights include fresh mussels and crabs from the sea, and those interested in art and culture will find numerous museums. In Zierikzee, there are over 500 monuments to marvel at and shopping fans will find numerous small boutiques.

4

Schuddebeurs/Zierikzee – Willemstad | approx. 55 km

The first stretch of today's tour takes you through Zeeland again before you cross over to the province of North Brabant. There will be no shortage of opportunities for swimming stops today, and you will find beaches, sun and delicious food around every corner. Willemstad is your next overnight stop. The historic fortress town has hardly changed since 1585.

DAY
5Willemstad – Dordrecht | approx. 60 km

Today's stage takes you to De Biesbosch National Park; a unique labyrinth of small rivers and streams stretching over 8,000 hectares. In this water kingdom, you can observe numerous bird species as well as beavers. The tranquillity of the untouched nature guarantees deceleration. Contrast this with the hustle and bustle of Dordrecht: In Holland's oldest city, there are over 1,000 monuments to marvel at, and there is always something going on in the picturesque alleys of the city centre.

DAY
6Dordrecht – Gouda | approx. 45 km

Today you will discover the impressive windmills of Kinderdijk. These 19 buildings are among the most photographed motifs in Holland. In the three museum windmills, you can learn all kinds of interesting facts about their origins. Situated between historic drawbridges and picturesque streams, you will also be impressed by the water-rich nature. The stage destination Gouda is not only known for its delicious cheese - you should also try the syrup waffles here. There are many historic buildings to visit in the city centre.

DAY
7Gouda – Amsterdam | approx. 70 km

On your last cycling stage, you will roam through the green heart of the Netherlands. In this vast natural area, alternating between towns and picturesque villages, you will find everything that is so typical of Holland: cheese, windmills, grazing cows, historic country estates and quaint farms where old craftsmanship still prevails. The destination of your cycle tour is Amsterdam. It is impossible to fully explore the Dutch metropolis in one evening.

DAY
8Individual departure, return transfer or extension

After breakfast, your cycling holiday from Belgium to Holland comes to an end. There is much to discover in the capital of the Netherlands. We are happy to book an extension for you, or you can avail of the optional return transfer with our bike bus to Bruges.

Tour character

The route follows the 'fietsknooppunten' numbered junction network in Belgium and Holland. The route is mainly flat, on asphalted cycle paths and side roads with little traffic. Only when entering and leaving the cities should you expect increased traffic. The trip is also suitable for families with children as well as cycling beginners.
